DEATHS.

MAPPIN

—Raymond T. Mappin, aged eighteen, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, at seven o'clock Tuesday morning, after an illness of two weeks. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Mappin, formerly of Paris. Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, William and George Mappin, both of Lexington. The funeral was held at the Central Christian church, in Lexington, yesterday morning at ten o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. Dr. I. J. Spencer. The body was brought to Paris, for interment on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pallbearers were six cousins of the deceased: Claude C. Redmon, William Rash, Flournoy Rash, Lillard Redmon, J. P. Redmon and Frank Speakes.

BURNS

—Mrs. Sarah Ratliff Burns, aged eighty-six, died Tuesday evening of senility, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andy Shrout, near Paris. She was a native of Nicholas county, and was the widow of Wallace Burns, who preceded her to the grave several months ago. For a short time after the death of her husband she continued to reside at the old family home near Moorefield, but came to Paris several weeks ago, where she made her home with her daughter until her death. The body was taken to Sharpsburg, where the funeral was held yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. S. L. Moore.

THOMPSON

—Frank P. Thompson, prominent Montgomery county farmer, died in the Nevitt Sanitarium, in Lexington, Wednesday, after an illness extending over a period of several weeks. Mr. Thompson was well advanced in years. Previous to his last illness, he had been actively engaged in farming in Montgomery county, and was well-known throughout Central Kentucky. He was a brother of George C. Thompson, of Paris, and an uncle of Albert S. Thompson, James H. Thompson, Drake Thompson, Mrs. Swift Champ and J. M. Scott, all of Paris.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in Macpelah Cemetery, in Mt. Sterling.
